Can the leaves of the trees and the flowers of the earth be wrong? Their lives are short but full of beauty that glorifies their maker. Praise God because He allowed us to share their beauty and thank Him for making that beauty eternally His.

A VIEW OF MR. HAETTEN—PRINCIPAL

Mr. Haetten can be seen in various places in the building on almost any day. You might catch him in his office, on his way to take charge of some class when a teacher is unable to be there, or on a basketball court pumping around. In addition to these activities, as well as many others, he has served as counselor, helping many of throughout the year.

OPERATE
BEHIND
SCENES

A black and white photograph capturing a moment of academic achievement. In the center, a person stands in profile, facing right. They are dressed in a traditional graduation gown and cap, with a tassel hanging down. Their left hand rests on a large, open book that lies flat on the ground. The book's pages are visible, though the text is illegible. The background is a plain, light-colored wall, creating a high-contrast silhouette effect. The overall composition is minimalist and celebratory.

B-TEAM CHEERLEADERS

HEAD CHEERLEADER: Kay Sanders.

A new tradition was begun at Fairfield this year. The varsity cheerleaders breathed sighs of relief—and the freshman cheerleaders were equally happy—when it was learned that there was to be a third squad of cheerleaders for the "B-Team" games. Try-outs were held early in the year so that the B-Team cheerleaders could get in on the last action of football season. The girls have done a good job and have proved that a B-Team cheering squad is necessary for Fairfield's sports involvement.

MOMENTS TO REMEMBER

THE DREAMS AHEAD

What would we do in this world of ours,
Were it not for the dreams ahead?
For thorns are mixed with the blooming flowers
No matter which path we tread.

And each of us has his golden goal,
Stretching far into the years;
And ever he climbs with a hopeful soul,
With alternate smiles and tears.

That dream ahead is what holds him up
Through the storms of a ceaseless fight;
When his lips are pressed to wormwood's cup.
And clouds shut out the light.

To some it's a dream of a high estate;
To some it's a dream of wealth;
To some it's a dream of a truce with Fate
In a ceaseless search for health.

*

To some it's a dream of home and wife;
To some, of a crown above.
The dreams ahead are what make each life;
The dreams, and faith, and love.
